

katie mcdermott

PROFILE

Katie McDermott is an interdisciplinary artist who primarily creates with paint and raw clay. Her work explores ideas surrounding permanence and impermanence in life cycles and the artistic process. She builds up surface layers and textures, then later allows them to be disrupted by various erosive processes.

EMAIL:

katielynnmcdermott94@gmail.com

WEBSITE:

katielynnmcdermott.com

SPECIALTIES

- Printmaking
- Painting
- Mixed media
- Ceramics

EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO
2020-2022

- Master in Fine Arts candidate in the Printmedia program

ROBERTS WESLEYAN COLLEGE

2012-2017

- Bachelors of Science in Visual Art Education
- Bachelors of Science in Childhood Education and Special Education

SELECTED GROUP EXHIBITIONS

2021 | Queer Expressions, Ronald Williams Library, Chicago, IL

2021 | RAW, Gallery 1922, Chicago, IL

2021 | Rethink, Reuse, Recycle, Gallery 1922, Chicago, IL

2017 | Senior Exhibition, Davison Art Gallery, Rochester, New York

2017 | Recollections, Davison Art Gallery, Rochester, New York

2016 | Juried Student Exhibition, Davison Art Gallery, Rochester, New York

OUTDOOR INSTALLATIONS

2021 | Albany Park, Chicago, IL

2021 | Wicker Park, Chicago, IL

AWARDS

2021 | Lucille Wert Memorial Scholarship

2017 | Curator's Choice Award in honor of outstanding artist merit, Davison Art Gallery, Rochester, New York

2017 | President's Award, Davison Art Gallery, Rochester, NY

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2021 | Teaching Assistant for Disobedient Objects, Professor Nia Easley, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, IL

2020 | Teaching Assistant for Artist Books, Professor Myungah Hyon, School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, IL

2017-2020 | High School Art Teacher at International Bilingual School at Hsinchu Science Park, Hsinchu, Taiwan

2017-2020 | First Grade Homeroom teacher at International Bilingual School at Hsinchu Science Park, Hsinchu, Taiwan